Saint-Tropez joins the Impressionisms Routes Network (November 2020)

The Town Council of the City of Saint-Tropez, at its meeting on October 8th, 2020, unanimously approved the decision to join the Impressionisms Routes Network.

Saint-Tropez, a mythical and prestigious site on the Mediterranean Riviera, is one of the capitals of world tourism. The famous port is visited by more than 6 million people every year! Everything is famous and celebrated as such there: its golden beaches, its unique port in the world, its classified historical citadel from the 18th century, its flowery narrow streets in warm colours, its various museums, including that of the Annonciade and its magnificent collection of Signac, Braque, Matisse, Utrillo, Van Dongen, Bonnard, Dufy... Paul Signac set up his easel there in the spring of 1892. The master of pointillism and the writer Guy de Maupassant were among the first to succumb to the charm of the place... Many others artists followed: Colette, Isadora Duncan, Pablo Picasso, Errol Flynn, Boris Vian, Maurice Chevalier... The city intends to fully enhance its artistic and pictorial heritage.

The arrival of Saint-Tropez within the Impressionisms Routes network, Cultural Route of the Council of Europe, is an excellent opportunity to develop the Signac network, already launched under the leadership of the city of Asnières-sur-Seine.
